NAVAIR INSTRUCTION 8000.1A

From: Commander, Naval Air Systems Command

To: Deputy Commander, NAVAIR Acquisition Executive and Deputy Commander for Operations, Assistant Commanders, Comptroller, Command Special Assistants, Program Directors, Designated Program Managers, Program Coordinators, Directorate
Directors, and Office and Division Directors

Subj: MATERIEL PLANNING STUDY

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 8000.14B

1. Purpose. This instruction implements reference (a) and establishes policies and assigns responsibilities for the preparation and use of the Materiel Planning Study (MPS) within Naval Air Systems Command Headquarters (NAVAIRHQ).

2. Cancellation. This instruction supersedes NAVAIR Instruction 8000.1 of 2 June 1982. Since this is a major revision, changes are not indicated.

3. Background

a. Content. The MPS was developed to ensure uniform presentation of program data requirements, assets, objectives and procurement information for nonnuclear ordnance items. The MPS for nonnuclear ordnance items contains peacetime and wartime requirements, inventory status, production delivery information and an indication of the adequacy of program plans to meet material readiness objectives.

b. Objectives. The MPS is used to accomplish the following:

(1) Develop sound material requirements for the Program Objective Memorandum (POM), budgets and support planning.

(2) Ease procurement and production planning.

(3) Develop realistic mobilization programs.

(4) Provide a vehicle to exchange program requirements information.

(5) Determine mobilization readiness and establish a base to evaluate surge and industrial preparedness plans.

c. Submission dates. MPS's will be submitted annually by 15 February for the items listed in reference (a) based on the congressional budget. They will also be prepared within 2 weeks after submission of the POM and the Navy Comptroller, Office of the Secretary of Defense, and congressional/apportionment budgets to reflect changes.

4. Policy

a. MPS's will be prepared for items listed in reference (a) or as directed by higher authority.

b. MPS's will be used to:

- (1) Develop 5-year program plans for inclusion in the POM.
- (2) Provide peacetime and mobilization requirements to support funding needs and budget submissions.
- (3) Measure readiness and evaluate combat capabilities.
- (4) Determine acquisition requirements.
- (5) Provide a base to evaluate maintenance requirements and ordnance retention levels.

5. Action

a. Comptroller Group (AIR-08) is responsible for:

- (1) Preparing MPS's (form OPNAV 8000/1) and submitting to higher authority.
- (2) Reviewing guidance from higher authority relating to the MPS and issuing implementing NAVAIR policy.
- (3) Coordinating the development of joint service operating policy for nonnuclear ordnance requirements with the Single Manager for Conventional Ammunition.
- (4) Reviewing budget submissions and MPS's to ensure they are compatible.

b. Assistant Commanders

- (1) Provide data on procurement, acceptance schedules and inventories needed to prepare MPS's to AIR-08.
- (2) Review MPS's prior to submission to ensure they are compatible with budget data and other NAVAIR initiatives.

6. Forms. OPNAV 8000/1, Materiel Planning Study, is stocked in NAVAIRHQ Analysis and Support Branch (AIR-8013).

12 Nov 87

7. Reports. Report Symbol OPNAV 8000-8 has been assigned by reference (a) to the MPS. This report has been approved through January 1989.
